“THE LONG AFTERLIFE OF BROWN V BOARD:
A COMMEMORATION OF THE LANDMARK SUPREME COURT DECISION AND ITS LEGACY.”

To commemorate the 65th anniversary of the hallmark Brown v. Board decision and decade of subsequent court battles and protests, Dr. Millicent Brown and Caroll Y. Turpin will share their experiences as children who desegregated South Carolina’s public schools in the 1960s.

Join us for this important panel discussion on desegregation and its legacies.

MARCH 27TH, 2019

Reception to start at 5:30 p.m. Talk will begin at 6:00 p.m.
