Innovative Teaching and Learning in the Liberal Arts and Sciences

2017 SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM APPLICATION

DEADLINE: April 14, 2017

When will the funds be used?

________ Before June 30, 2017    ________ After June 30, 2017

APPLICANT

Name: ________________________________________ Rank: ________________________

Department: ___________________________________ Phone: _______________________

Co-Applicant (if applicable) ___________________________________________________

(If you are proposing a joint project, each team member should complete a separate application. Be sure, however, to indicate that the application is part of a proposed joint project.)

INNOVATIVE TEACHING ACTIVITY

Title: ________________________________________________________________

_______ New Course      _______ Existing Course      _______ Other Activity

Implementation Timeline: _____________________________________________

PROJECT DESCRIPTION and ITEMIZED BUDGET

On a separate page, please provide a 500-word proposal that:

• outlines your project
• highlights how the proposed activities promote innovative teaching and learning in the liberal arts and sciences
• details the ways your project promotes any of the strategic emphases outlined in the call for proposals: diversity, internationalization, integrative learning, and high impact learning experiences
• includes an itemized budget

Total Amount Requested? __________________________

Do you expect to receive funds from any other source, including your department, for this project?

____ No    ____ Yes    If yes, list the source(s) and amount(s) of funding below:

___________________________________________________________________________

Please Note: Only complete applications will be reviewed for funding.

____________________________________________________________
Applicant Signature  Date

____________________________________________________________
Department Chair or Program Director Signature  Date