

Nationally Competitive Graduate Scholarships and Fellowships

If interested in learning more or in applying, contact:

Trisha Folds-Bennett, PhD
Associate Dean
Honors College
130 Robert Scott Small Building
953-5084
foldsbennett@cofc.edu

Last Updated: January 5, 2007

Graduate Awards for Study Abroad

1. Alfa

- a. Nature of Award: Supports graduate degree and professional experience Russia in these fields: business, economics, journalism, law, government, or public policy
- b. Deadline: December
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizens between 25 and 35
 - ii. Master's degree in business, economics, journalism, law, public policy, government preferred; plus two years professional experience
 - iii. Outstanding professional achievement and academic qualifications
 - iv. Active involvement in community or public service
 - v. Two years of post-secondary Russian or equivalent
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Signed application
 - ii. Resume
 - iii. Official transcripts
 - iv. Personal statement
 - v. Sample of writing in Russian
 - vi. Two letters of recommendation
- e. Length of Award: 1 year, starting with 6 months of language training
- f. Amount of Award: varies with program placement
- g. Website: www.cdsintl.org/fromusa/alfa/html

2. DAAD Study Scholarships

- a. Nature of Award: Supports Master's level graduate study in Germany; all fields (for clinical fields, contact DAAD)
- b. Deadline: November 1, 2006 (for applicants in music, visual arts, performing arts; November 15, 2006 (for applicants outside arts fields)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Graduating seniors enrolled full-time at accredited college or university
 - ii. Good command of German
 - iii. Must have well-defined study project that makes a stay in Germany essential
 - iv. US or Canadian citizens; Foreign Nationals who have studied in N. America for 2 years
 - v. Younger than 32
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Campus Nomination Required
 - ii. Online Application
 - iii. Vitae
 - iv. Detailed Study proposal
 - v. Evidence of contact with German Institution
 - vi. 2 letters of recommendation
 - vii. DAAD language evaluation form
 - viii. Transcript
- e. Length of Award: One academic year with possibility of 1 year extension
- f. Amount of Award: Approximately $1000 per month, health insurance and subsidy for travel
- g. Website: www.daad.org

3. DAAD

- a. Nature of Award: Supports one year of graduate study in Germany; encourages the study of cultural, political, historical, social, and economic aspects of modern and contemporary Germany
- b. Deadline: November 1, 2006 and May 1, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Master's level graduate students in the humanities and social sciences

- ii. Must have completed minimum of 3 courses in German Studies
- iii. Completion of two years of college level German language study
- iv. US citizen
- v. Younger than 32
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Campus Nomination Required
 - ii. Application form
 - iii. Vitae
 - iv. Detailed description of research project, including research plan and itinerary
 - v. Budget statement
 - vi. List of German language and German Studies courses taken
 - vii. 2 letters of recommendation
 - viii. DAAD language evaluation form
 - ix. Transcript
- e. Length of Award: One time cash award
- f. Amount of Award: $1500-$2500
- g. Website: www.daad.org

4. Fulbright Full Study

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Supports study abroad for up to one year. In some cases, supports language training.
- b. Deadline: October 21 (campus deadline: September 28)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Good health
 - iii. At time of application, possession of BS/BA or enrollment as graduating college senior or graduate student
 - iv. Sufficient proficiency in the written and spoken language of host country
- d. Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Completed application form
 - ii. 3 letters of reference
 - iii. Personal Statement
 - iv. Project Proposal (this is extremely critical; committee will look for feasibility of proposed project)
 - v. Letter of Affiliation from an institution or individual who will supervise project
 - vi. Transcripts
 - vii. Language form to show level of language proficiency
 - viii. Requires campus nomination (submission of campus rating form and all application materials by campus coordinator)
- e. Length of Award: One academic year
- f. Amount of Award: Covers travel, living costs, small book and research allowance, supplemental health and accident insurance, tuition (in some cases), language courses (in some cases)
- g. Website: www.us.fulbrightonline.org

5. Gates-Cambridge

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Supports graduate study at Cambridge University, UK
- b. Deadline: Oct 15, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Any nationality, except UK
 - ii. Under age of 30
 - iii. Must apply to one of following: degree program leading to PhD, one-year post-graduate course, second Bachelor's degree, MBBChir Clinical Studies
 - iv. Must be admitted to Cambridge under normal procedures
 - v. Academic interests and abilities must match the offerings at Cambridge
 - vi. Must satisfy all requirements for course of study
 - vii. English proficiency

- d. Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Submit Graduate and Scholarship form to Board of Graduate Studies
 - ii. 2 Letters of Reference from faculty
 - iii. Transcript
 - iv. Certification of Graduation
 - v. Research Proposal (only applies to some courses of study)
 - vi. Written Work (only applies to some courses of study)
 - vii. Curriculum Vitae
- e. Length of Award: Until completion of graduate study
- f. Amount of Award: Tuition and other fees, maintenance allowance, discretionary allowance, travel
- g. Website: www.trust.gatesscholar.org

6. German Chancellor Scholarships

- a. Nature of Award: To enable individuals to complete projects in academic, political, and economic fields in Germany
- b. Deadline: October 31, 2006
- c. Number of Awards: 10
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizens
 - ii. Must have completed Bachelor's degree by start of award
 - iii. Not older than 34
 - iv. German language proficiency not required, but does help
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Project Description
 - iii. Three letters of recommendation
 - iv. Transcript
 - v. Statement from proposed mentor in Germany
 - vi. Evidence of German speaking skills
- f. Length of Award: One year
- g. Amount of Award:
- h. Website: www.humboldt-foundation.de/en/programme

7. Marshall

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Study at any university in UK
- b. Deadline: Oct 4, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. By start of scholarship, a bachelor's degree from accredited 4-year college or university in US
 - iii. GPA of at least 3.7
 - iv. No previous study or degrees from UK university
 - v. Must evidence distinction of intellect and character
 - vi. Must demonstrate strong motivation and seriousness of purpose
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Requires campus nomination; Must have endorsement of President, Provost, or Academic Dean
 - ii. Complete online registration form
 - iii. Proposal of specific, rigorous program of study
 - iv. Personal statement
 - v. 4 Letters of recommendation
 - vi. Transcript
 - vii. At least 3.7 GPA
- e. Length of Award: 2 academic years (some extensions are possible)
- f. Amount of Award: Covers university fees, cost of living, books, thesis fees, research and travel expenses, travel to UK,
- g. Website: www.marshallscholarship.org

8. Mitchell

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; supports graduate study at any university in Ireland or N. Ireland
- b. Deadline: Oct 6, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Bachelor's degree from accredited 4 year college or university (by August of award year)
 - iii. Application or acceptance to graduate program at an Irish university
 - iv. Demonstration of excellence in academics, leadership, and community service
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Campus endorsement required
 - ii. Personal essay
 - iii. 5 letters of recommendation
 - iv. Transcript
- e. Length of Award: One year (no extension possible)
- f. Amount of Award: Tuition, housing, $12,000 living expense stipend, travel
- g. Website: www.us-irelandalliance.org

9. NSEP/Boren

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Supports graduate study in specific world region, its language and culture (particularly non-Western) at any US university. Can study overseas, domestically, or both
- b. Deadline: Jan 30, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Willingness to make service commitment to Depts of Defense, Homeland Security, State, or Intelligence Community
 - iii. At start of award, must provide evidence of enrollment in graduate program at accredited US institution
 - iv. Prior experience with language training
 - v. Demonstrated academic preparation and potential
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Online application
 - ii. 3 essays
 - iii. Letter of overseas affiliation
 - iv. Language Proficiency form
 - v. 3 letters of reference
 - vi. Budget form
 - vii. transcript
- e. Length of Award: Minimum of one semester; Maximum of two years
- f. Amount of Award: $24,000 for overseas only; $12,000 for domestic; $30,000 for both
- g. Website: www.iie.org/programs/nsep

10. Peace Corps

- a. Nature of Award: To promote world peace and friendship by providing opportunities for volunteers to travel abroad and provide practical assistance (in education and youth development, health and HIV/AIDS, Agriculture, Environment, Business Development, or Information Technology) to countries that request it; Also provides opportunities for graduate school education and job placement.
- b. Deadline: rolling
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be at least 18 years old
 - ii. Must be willing to commit for 27 months
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Letter of reference
- e. Length of Award: 27 months
- f. Amount of Award: Living allowance, medical and dental care, travel to location of service
- g. Website: www.peacecorps.gov

11. Rhodes

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Supports graduate study at Oxford, UK
- b. Deadline: Oct 2, 2006 (institutional endorsement deadline: Oct 10)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. 18-24 years of age
 - iii. Must complete Bachelors before entering Oxford
 - iv. Must apply as college senior
 - v. High academic achievement and public service
 - vi. At least 3.6 GPA
 - vii. Challenging course load
 - viii. Evidence of leadership
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Campus Nomination required
 - ii. Completed application
 - iii. Personal statement that includes description of area of proposed study
 - iv. List of personal principal activities and honors
 - v. 5-8 Letters of recommendation
 - vi. Transcript
 - vii. Proof of citizenship
- e. Length of Award: 2 years (may receive 1 year extension)
- f. Amount of Award: Full tuition, travel expenses, living expense stipend
- g. Website: www.rhodesscholar.org

12. Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarships

- a. Nature of Award: Any field; Supports study abroad in any country where there is a Rotary Club
- b. Deadline: Set up by each Rotary Club (Rotary Clubs must present nominate candidates by Oct. 1 two years before proposed project is to begin)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Citizen of country where there are Rotary Clubs
 - ii. Completion of at least 2 years of college-level coursework or equivalent professional experience
 - iii. May not be Rotarian or lineal descendent of Rotarain
 - iv. May not be used to continue studies that have already begun
 - v. Must be proficient in language of host country (some exceptions)
 - vi. Maturity and demonstrated commitment to organizational participation and leadership
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Must apply through Rotary Club in legal or permanent residence or place of full-time study or employment (limit of two nominees per club)
 - ii. Statement of Purpose
 - iii. Description of Project
 - iv. Application or acceptance to institution where course work will occur
- e. Length of Award: Academic year (multi-year and shorter term also available)
- f. Amount of Award: Travel funds, tuition, room and board, and some educational supplies (Maximum amount is $26,000)
- g. Website: www.rotary.org

Graduate Awards for Minority Student

1. American Geological Institute Minority Participation Program

- a. Nature of Award: To support minority students in graduate study in the geosciences, including related disciplines
- b. Deadline: March 1, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen

- ii. Ethnic minority status: Black, Hispanic, Native American
- iii. Demonstrated financial need
- iv. Full-time student
- v. Only available for those studying geoscience, including geology, geophysics, geochemistry, hydrology, meteorology, physical oceanography, planetary geology, earth science education
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application form
 - ii. Transcript, including standardized test scores
 - iii. Personal Statement
 - iv. 3 letters of recommendation
- e. Length of Award: one time cash award
- f. Amount of Award: $500-3000
- g. Website: www.agiweb.org

2. American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

- a. Nature of Award: Supports minority students interested in a career in accounting
- b. Deadline: June 1
- c. Number of Awards: varies, between 100-150
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be AICPA student affiliate
 - ii. Declared accounting major
 - iii. GPA of at least 3.3
 - iv. Minority student (Black, Native American, Alaskan Native, Pacific Islander, Hispanic) who has completed at least 30 hours of college work, including at least 6 hours in accounting
 - v. Must be full-time undergraduate student
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application
 - ii. Transcript
 - iii. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member or CPA
- f. Length of Award:
- g. Amount of Award: up to $5000
- h. Website: www.aicpa.org/members/div/career/mini/smas.htm

1. American Library Association Spectrum Initiative Scholarships

- a. Nature of Award: To support minority students who attend an ALA-accredited graduate program in library and information studies
- b. Deadline: March 1, 2007
- c. Number of Awards: Approximately 60
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. US or Canadian citizen
 - ii. American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian American, Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander
 - iii. Must attend an ALA-accredited program by Fall immediately after award
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application
 - ii. Personal Statement
 - iii. Transcript
 - iv. 3 Letters of reference
- f. Length of Award: One time cash award, membership in several professional organizations, opportunities for other scholarships, and support in job applications
- g. Amount of Award: $5000
- h. Website: www.ala.org

2. American Society of Criminology Fellowships for Ethnic Minorities

- a. Nature of Award: To encourage minority students to enter fields of criminology and criminal justice
- b. Deadline: March 1, 2007

- c. Number of Awards: 3
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. African American, Asian American, Latino, Native American
 - ii. Acceptance into doctoral program in criminology or criminal justice
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Vitae
 - iii. Transcript
 - iv. Statement of need and prospectus for financial assistance
 - v. Letter describing career interest
 - vi. 3 letters of reference
- f. Length of Award: academic year
- g. Amount of Award: $6000
- h. Website: www.asc41.com

3. Ford Minority

- a. Nature of Award: Supports study in doctoral program in specified fields in science and the humanities (e.g., chemistry, math, philosophy, politics, women's studies, geography, history)
- b. Deadline: November 27, 2006
- c. Number of Awards: 60
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Evidence of superior academic achievement
 - ii. Promise to continue achievement as scholar
 - iii. US citizen or foreign national
 - iv. Membership in minority group: Black/African American, Alaska Native, Mexican American/Chicanas/Chicanos, Native American, Native Pacific Islander, Puerto Rican
 - v. Sustained of personal engagement with community
 - vi. Acceptance in accredited doctoral program
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Online Application
 - ii. Essay
 - iii. Statement of previous research
 - iv. Personal statement
 - v. 4 letters of recommendation
 - vi. Transcript
 - vii. GRE scores
 - viii. Verification of predoctoral status
- f. Length of Award: Up to 3 years
- g. Amount of Award: $20,000 stipend, $3000 toward tuition and fees, expenses to one conference
- h. Website: www7.nationalacademies.org/fordfellowships

Awards for Graduate Study

1. American Meteorological Society Fellowship/Scholarship Program

- a. Nature of Award: To support graduate study in atmospheric or related oceanic and hydrologic science
- b. Deadline: February 9, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Full-time students entering first year of graduate study in accredited university
 - ii. Majors in atmospheric physics, oceanic/hydrologic science
 - iii. Minimum 3.25 GPA
 - iv. US citizen
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. 3 letters of reference
 - iii. 2 essays
 - iv. Transcript

- v. GRE scores
- vi. Description of Proposed Course of Study
- e. Length of Award: 9 months
- f. Amount of Award: $22,000
- g. Website: www.ametsoc.org

2. John L. Carey Scholarships

- a. Nature of Award: To provide financial assistance to liberal arts degree students pursuing graduate study in accounting
- b. Deadline: April 1, 2007
- c. Number of awards: 7
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Must have liberal arts degree from accredited university
 - ii. Must be applying/accepted to accounting graduate program
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application form
 - ii. Essay
 - iii. Transcript
 - iv. GRE scores
 - v. 2 letters of recommendation
 - vi. Resume
- f. Length of Award: One year, renewable for additional year
- g. Amount of Award: $5000
- h. Website: www.aicpa.org

3. Hertz

- a. Nature of Award: Graduate study in the applied physical sciences
- b. Deadline: October 27, 2006 (references due by October 30)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizens
 - ii. Exceptional intelligence and creativity
 - iii. Excellent technical education
 - iv. Either undergraduates bound for PhD programs or graduate students already enrolled in PhD programs
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application that includes 4 essays
 - ii. Transcript
 - iii. 4 Letters of reference
 - iv. GRE scores
- e. Length of Award: up to 5 years (or length of graduate study if less than 5 years)
- f. Amount of Award: $28,000 per year, plus tuition
- g. Website: www.hertzfoundation.org

4. Jack Kent Cooke

- a. Nature of Award: Graduate study, any field
- b. Deadline: March 15, 2007 (campus deadline: February 23, 2007)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Demonstrated financial need (includes analysis of applicant's and applicant's family's (generally low to moderate income) financial resources, cost of grad school, other awards or scholarships)
 - ii. College senior or recent graduate
 - iii. Have Bachelor's degree by May 2007
 - iv. Cumulative GPA of 3.5 or better
 - v. Plan to begin graduate study in Fall 2007
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Requires campus nomination (limit of 2 nominees)
 - ii. Must be enrolled as senior at accredited institution

- iii. Must be accepted into graduate program to begin following fall
- iv. Must have cumulative GPA of 3.5
- v. May not be nominated more than one time for award
- vi. Must demonstrate unmet financial need (family income considered)
- vii. Must demonstrate interest in arts and humanities
- viii. Transcript
- ix. 2 Letters of Reference
- e. Length of Award: May receive funding for up to 6 years
- f. Amount of Award: Portion of educational costs, including tuition, room, and board, book, and other required fees for the length of the grad program, up to 6 years. Per student maximum of $50,000 per year
- g. Website: www.jackkentcookefoundation.org

5. Javits

- a. Nature of Award: Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences; Supports study at US doctoral programs (except any that lead to clinical practice)
- b. Deadline: Early October, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Undergraduate students about to enter graduate school or graduate students who have not completed first year.
 - ii. US citizens or nationals
 - iii. Applicants must be eligible for acceptance or currently attending a graduate program leading to doctorate or terminal masters at accredited institution.
 - iv. Financial need must be established (parental income not included in calculation)
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Statement of Purpose
 - iii. 3 Letters of Recommendation from faculty
 - iv. Transcript
 - v. Supporting materials in the arts (for arts candidates)
 - vi. GRE scores (except for arts candidates)
- e. Length of Award: Can be extended for length of graduate education
- f. Amount of Award: Tuition and fees, stipend (average size of award: $42,106)
- g. Website: www.ed.gov/programs/jacobjavits

6. Lionel Pearson Fellowship

- a. Nature of Award: For study at an English or Scottish University to outstanding students majoring in Greek, Latin, Classics, or closely related fields at any American, Canadian college or university
- b. Deadline: Oct 2, 2006 (Nominations); Oct 30, 2006 (Completed applications)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Outstanding students in final year of undergraduate study
 - ii. Strong background in classical languages
 - iii. Will earn BA before Sept 2007
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Requires nomination by faculty member familiar with work
 - ii. Application form
 - iii. Letters of recommendation
- e. Length of Award: One year
- f. Amount of Award: academic fees, living stipend, travel (not to exceed $25,000)
- g. Website: www.apaclassics.org/administration/pearson.html

7. National Defense Science and Engineering Graduate Fellowship Program

- a. Nature of Award: Supports graduate study (doctoral level) in science and engineering
- b. Deadline: January 8, 2007 (postmarked)
- c. Number of Awards: 300
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen or foreign national

- ii. Minority applications encouraged
- iii. Must receive Bachelor's degree by start of award
- iv. Must be in final year of undergraduate study or have completed no more than one year of full-time graduate study
- v. Must plan to attend an accredited US graduate institution in appropriate discipline
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Online Application
 - ii. Transcript
 - iii. Essays
 - iv. GRE scores
 - v. 3 letters of reference
- f. Length of Award: 3 years (including at least one summer of research at DoD lab)
- g. Amount of Award: tuition and fees (not room and board, plus 30,000 per year stipend)
- h. Website: www.asee.org/ndseg

8. National Science Foundation

- a. Nature of Award: Natural and Social Sciences; graduate study at any research-based master's or doctoral program, US or abroad (does not include clinically-focused degrees)
- b. Deadline: Nov 1, 2006 (interdisciplinary); Nov. 3, 2006 (Computer and Information Science and Engineering, Math); Nov. 6, 2006 (Geosciences, Psychology, Social Sciences; Nov. 8, 2006 (Life Sciences); Nov. 9, 2006 (Engineering); Nov. 13, 2006 (Chemistry, Physics, Astronomy)
- c. Number of Awards: 1000
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Completion of bachelor's and start of graduate degree by Fall 2007
 - iii. Senior in college or prior/during first year of graduate school
 - iv. Must demonstrate pending affiliation with an accredited graduate program
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application (with detailed project plan)
 - ii. Transcript
 - iii. GRE (optional) [NSF will pay the GRE registration fee provided the test is taken for purpose of award application]
 - iv. Three letters of reference from faculty members
- f. Length of Award: 3 year maximum
- g. Amount of Award: $30,000 stipend per year; $10,500 tuition per year; one time $1000 travel grant
- h. Website: www.fastlane.nsf.gov

9. Phi Kappa Phi Study Graduate Fellowships

- a. Nature of Award: Support graduate or professional study for members of Phi Kappa Phi
- b. Deadline: February 1, 2007
- c. Number of Awards: 60 at $5000; 40 at $2000
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be an active member of Phi Kappa Phi
 - ii. Have applied to enroll as full-time student in post-baccalaureate program
 - iii. Graduating senior at accredited undergraduate institution
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Campus nomination required (CofC limit is 1)
 - ii. Application
 - iii. Personal Statement
 - iv. Acceptance at an approved graduate or professional program
 - v. Transcript
 - vi. Letters of reference
 - vii. Standardized test scores
- f. Length of Award: One year
- g. Amount of Award: $5000/$2000
- h. Website: www.phikappaphi.org/scholarships

10. Pickering

- a. Nature of Award: Any academic major leading to career in US Foreign Service
- b. Deadline: Feb 5, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Minimum GPA of 3.2
 - iii. At time of application, must be seeking admission to graduate school with intention to enroll in at least a 2-year masters program in either public policy, international affairs, or public administration
 - iv. Upon completion of award, must complete 3 years with Foreign Service
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Certification of US citizenship
 - ii. GRE scores
 - iii. 2 Letters of Recommendation
 - iv. Transcript
 - v. Copy of financial aid letter for candidates who are receive aid
- e. Length of Award: 1st and 2nd year of graduate study
- f. Amount of Award: Tuition, room, board, fees, books, travel (one round trip ticket per year), stipend for 2 summer internships (one abroad)
- g. Website: www.woodrow.org

11. Charles B Rangel International Affairs Fellowship Program

- a. Nature of Award: Supports 2 year masters program for students in interested in Foreign Service; housed at Howard University; includes 6 week summer enrichment program
- b. Deadline: January 26, 2007
- c. Number of Awards: 10
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Willingness to commit to 3 years of Foreign Service
 - ii. US citizen
 - iii. Individuals in senior year of undergraduate study or completion of degree
 - iv. Individuals seeking admission to graduate study
 - v. 3.2 GPA
 - vi. Demonstrated leadership skill
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application
 - ii. 2 letters of recommendation
 - iii. Personal Statement
 - iv. Transcript
 - v. Registration for Foreign Service written examination
 - vi. Pgs 7 and 8 of Howard Undergraduate Admissions Application
 - vii. Certification of citizenship
 - viii. Free Application for Federal Student Aid form
 - ix. GRE
- f. Length of Award: 2 years
- g. Amount of Award: up to $28,000
- h. Website: www.howard.edu/rjb

12. Soros "New" American Fellowship

- a. Nature of Award: Supports graduate study at any accredited US university for recent immigrants to US
- b. Deadline: November 1, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. "New American" – an individual who 1) is a resident alien, 2) has been naturalized as US citizen, 3) is the child of two parents who are both naturalized citizens
 - ii. Possess Bachelor's degree or in last year of undergraduate study
 - iii. Younger than 30

- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Demonstration of relevance of graduate study to career goals
 - ii. Evidence of at least two of the following: 1) creativity, originality, initiative, 2) capacity for accomplishment, 3) commitment to values expressed in Constitution and Bill of Rights
 - iii. Online Application
 - iv. Two essays
 - v. Resume
 - vi. 3 letters of recommendation
 - vii. Institutional status form
 - viii. Transcript
 - ix. Graduate Aptitude Test (relevant to graduate program)
 - x. Documentation of evidence of "New American"
- e. Length of Award: All years of graduate school
- f. Amount of Award: $20,000 per year and tuition grant of ½ tuition cost (up to $16,000)
- g. Website: www.pdsoros.org

Post-Baccalaureate Internships, Fellowships, and Public Service

1. Carnegie Junior Fellows Program

- a. Nature of Award: Opportunity for graduated seniors to work at Carnegie Foundation for International Peace
- b. Number of Awards (8-10)
- c. Deadline: January 15
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Graduating seniors from US university who have not begun graduate studies; do not have to be US citizen
 - ii. Must attend participating university (CofC is on the list)
 - iii. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - iv. Campus nomination is required
 - v. Application
 - vi. Transcript
 - vii. Essay
 - viii. Letters of recommendation
- e. Length of Award: 1 year
- f. Amount of Award: $33,000 per year (approximately); plus benefits
- g. Website: www.carnegieendowment.org/about/

2. Coro Fellows program

- a. Nature of Award: To develop future community leaders through exposure to community issues, leadership development, civic leaders, and organizations. Located in LA, Pittsburgh, NY, San Francisco, St. Louis. Access to graduate education in some sites.
- b. Deadline: January 5, 2007
- c. Number of Awards: 68
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Bachelor's degree
 - ii. Demonstrated involvement in civic and campus activities
- e. Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Pre-application and application
 - ii. Resume
 - iii. 3 Written Essays
 - iv. 3 letters of recommendation
 - v. Transcript
- f. Length of Award: Varies by Center; 9 months average
- g. Amount of Award: Varies by Center; on average awards are $8000 for 9 months
- h. Website: www.coro.org

3. Samuel Huntingdon Public Service Award

- a. Nature of Award: Support for graduating college senior to pursue public service elsewhere in the world.
- b. Deadline: February 15, 2007
- c. Eligibility: Graduating senior from accredited US colleges
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Cover sheet that includes
 - Brief statement of need for project
 - Brief project description (developed by student, either alone or in collaboration with established charitable, religious, educational, governmental, or other public service organization
 - Measurable target objectives
 - Schedule for project tasks
 - iii. Proposal (1000 words or less)
 - iv. Budget
 - v. Three letters of recommendation

- vi. Transcript
- vii. Resume
- e. Length of Award: 1 year
- f. Amount of Award: $10,000
- g. Website: www.nationalgridus.com/masselectric/about_us/award.asp

5. Scoville Peace Fellowship

- a. Nature of Award: To provide college graduates with the opportunity to gain a Washington perspective on key issues of peace and security.
- b. Deadline: Spring, October 10, 2006; Fall, February 1, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. College graduate (may apply in senior year)
 - ii. US citizenship not required, but non-US citizens must have proper work visa
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Personal Essay
 - ii. Policy Essay
 - iii. Resume/Vita
 - iv. Transcript
 - v. 2 letters of reference
- e. Length of Award: 6-9 months
- f. Amount of Award: $1900 per month, health insurance, travel to DC
- g. Website: www.clw.org/scoville

Post-Baccalaureate Awards for Teaching

1. Fulbright English Teaching Assistantships

- a. Nature of Award: Supports opportunities to teach English in various foreign countries
- b. Deadline: October 20 (campus deadline: September 28)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Good health
 - iii. At time of application, possession of BS/BA or enrollment as graduating college senior or graduate student
- d. Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Completed application form
 - ii. 3 letters of reference (at least two should be faculty in major field of study)
 - iii. Personal Statement
 - iv. Proposed country for teaching
 - v. Some teaching or training experience (varies by country)
 - vi. Transcripts
 - vii. Language form to show level of language proficiency
 - viii. Requires campus nomination (submission of campus rating form and all application materials by campus coordinator)
- e. Length of Award: One academic year
- f. Amount of Award: Travel expenses, room and board
- g. Website: www.us.fulbrightonline.org

2. Janet H. and C. Harry Knowles

- a. Nature of Award: To encourage students with degrees in physical science (physics, chemistry, astronomy) or mathematics to pursue careers as teachers
- b. Deadline: January 16, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Must possess content knowledge in targeted area
 - ii. Bachelor's degree in targeted areas (within 5 years of award)
 - iii. Evidence of Leadership and Ability to teach
 - iv. Admission into full-time graduate-level teacher education program

- v. Plans to teach full-time in area of certification upon completion of teacher education
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application
 - ii. Resume/Vita
 - iii. Three Essays
 - iv. 3 letters of recommendation
 - v. Transcript
- e. Length of Award: up to 5 years
- f. Amount of Award: Summer stipend, room, board, and travel; Academic year tuition assistance, monthly stipend, room, board, travel to annual meetings, membership in professional organization. Up to $10,000 annually
- g. Website: www.kstf.org/teaching_fellowships

3. JET Programme

- a. Nature of Award: To provide opportunity for post-baccalaureate students to teach English in Japan
- b. Deadline: Late November, 2006
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Interest in Japan
 - ii. Mental and physical health
 - iii. Ability to adapt to living in Japan
 - iv. US citizen
 - v. Under 40 years old
 - vi. Excellent rhythm, intonation, and voice projection
 - vii. Have not lived in Japan for more than 3 years since 1999
 - viii. Hold a bachelor's degree
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Application
- e. Length of Award:
- f. Amount of Award:
- g. Website: www.jetprogramme.org

4. Madison

- a. Nature of Award: Supports graduate study (masters level) at any US university in teaching American history or government at secondary level
- b. Deadline: March 1, 2007
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. US citizen
 - ii. Currently teaching, or plan to teach American history or government
 - iii. Bachelor's completed or to be completed by August of award year
 - iv. Must agree to teach American history, government or social studies in grades 7-12 for no less than one year for each full academic year of award
 - v. Planning to attend a graduate program to prepare for teaching American history/government
 - vi. Availability to attend 4-week summer institute on the constitution at Georgetown University
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. 600-word essay
 - ii. Transcripts
 - iii. Letters of recommendation
- e. Length of Award: Until completion of graduate training (usually two years)
- f. Amount of Award: Covers tuition, required fees, books, room and board. Maximum award ($24,000)
- g. Website: www.jamesmadison.com

5. Newton Fellowship Program

- a. Nature of Award: For mathematically sophisticated individuals who are interested in teaching math. Supports graduate training (at either NYU, Columbia, or Bard) and teaching experience (in New York City).
- b. Deadline: February 9, 2007

- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Must hold bachelor's degree (by June 2007) with at least 18 hours of coursework in math
 - ii. Education majors who have received teacher certification are not eligible
 - iii. Interested in teaching as career and willingness to make 5 year commitment to program
 - iv. US citizen or permanent resident
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Application
 - ii. Personal Statement
 - iii. Resume
 - iv. 3 letters of reference
 - v. Math exam (Nov. 18, 2006; Jan 13, 2007; March 3, 2007)
 - vi. Interview
- e. Length of Award: 5 years
- f. Amount of Award: $90,000 stipend over five years; full tuition to master's level teacher program
- g. Website: www.mathforamerica.org

1. Henry Salvatori Graduate Fellowship

- a. Nature of Award: Supports graduate work related to the American Founding for those planning to teach at the college level
- b. Deadline: February 15, 2007
- c. Number of Awards: 2
- d. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be member of Intercollegiate Studies Institute
 - ii. Must be enrolled in graduate study (or be a graduating college senior) and plan to teach at graduate level
 - iii. US citizen
- e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Fellowship application
 - ii. 3 brief statements
 - iii. 3 essays
 - iv. Undergraduate and Graduate transcripts
 - v. 3 letters of recommendation
- f. Length of Award: One year
- g. Amount of Award: $10,000
- h. Website: www.isi.org/programs

2. Teach for America

- a. Nature of Award: To provide college graduates with an opportunity to teach in at-risk schools that need strong and well-educated leadership
- b. Deadline: Sept 30, Nov 5, Jan 7, OR Feb 18 (multiple deadlines)
- c. Eligibility:
 - i. Graduating college senior or college graduate
 - ii. Any academic major
 - iii. At least 2.5 GPA
 - iv. US citizen, national, or lawful permanent resident
 - v. Availability to attend summer institute
- d. Application/Nomination Procedures
 - i. Resume
 - ii. Letter of intent
 - iii. Essay
 - iv. Phone Interview
 - v. Transcript (if invited to final interview)
 - vi. 2 Letters of recommendation (if invited to final interview)
- e. Length of Award: 1 year
- f. Amount of Award: salary and health benefits (varies depending on location of school)
- g. Website: www.teachforamerica.org

3. Richard M. Weaver Graduate Fellowship
 - a. Nature of Award: For students who plan to teach at the college level and who aspire to integrate the principles of liberal education into their teaching
 - b. Deadline: February 15, 2007
 - c. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be member of Intercollegiate Studies Institute
 - ii. Must be enrolled in graduate study (or be a graduating college senior) and plan to teach at graduate level
 - iii. US citizen
 - d. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Fellowship application
 - ii. 3 brief statements
 - iii. 3 essays
 - iv. Undergraduate and Graduate transcripts
 - v. 3 letters of recommendation
 - e. Length of Award: one time cash award
 - f. Amount of Award: $5000 and $1000 book allowance
 - g. Website: www.isi.org

4. Western Civilization Graduate Fellowship
 - a. Nature of Award: For doctoral work focused on the intellectual, economic, political, social, and religious heritage of Western Civilization
 - b. Deadline: February 15, 2007
 - c. Number of Awards: 3
 - d. Eligibility:
 - i. Must be member of Intercollegiate Studies Institute
 - ii. Must be enrolled in graduate study (or be a graduating college senior) and plan to teach at graduate level
 - iii. US citizen
 - e. Application/Nomination Procedures:
 - i. Fellowship application
 - ii. 3 brief statements
 - iii. 3 essays
 - iv. Undergraduate and Graduate transcripts
 - v. 3 letters of recommendation
 - f. Length of Award: one time cash award
 - g. Amount of Award: $20,000
 - h. Website: www.isi.org