ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN RENAISSANCE/BAROQUE

POSITION: The art history department at the College of Charleston invites applications for a full-time, tenure track Assistant Professor in the art of Renaissance/Baroque, beginning August, 2013. The candidate should be able to teach the introductory survey course, upper level courses and topics seminars in area of specialization, and a methodologies and research seminar. The teaching load is 3/3, and the candidate will be expected to advise students, participate in service, and maintain an active research program with publications. We seek a colleague committed to undergraduate teaching at a liberal arts institution.

Requirements: Ph.D., prior teaching experience, and evidence of professional accomplishment is required. Letter of application, CV, unofficial grad transcripts, and 3 letters of reference should be submitted at http://jobs.cofc.edu. Review of applications will begin November 1, 2012, with preliminary interviews to be scheduled in January 2013. Please advise if you will be attending CAA.

The College of Charleston is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer, and strongly encourages women and minorities to apply.
