Heather Crosby, adjunct lecturer of history and advisor for the Paranormal Activities Club, joined the College in 2013. An ardent educator, role model and historian, Crosby has converted many students who have taken her classes to history majors and minors. Crosby does so with the ardent conviction that, in order to understand one’s impact on the world, one must be engaged in the topic, the materials, the questions, the discussions and the historical events.